Report description:

Following a strong performance in 2022, deodorants in Ireland continued to record positive retail value and volume sales in 2023. While price increases supported strength in retail value, volume sales remained positive in deodorant creams, pumps, roll-ons and sprays, with deodorant sticks being the only area to showcase a retail volume decline. The lifting of COVID-19 restrictions supported sales, with a return to the office, more socialising events and occasions driving demand for deodorants ac...
