Report description:

Deodorants continued to perform well in Spain in 2023, in both value and volume terms. While value is supported by high unit prices due to inflationary pressures, volume is also robust thanks to baseline demand. That said, we should note that deodorants is a category in which consumers are noted to be trading down - as seen across other hygiene-related categories which require frequent use and, therefore, frequent purchases. Indeed, consumers' return to out-of-home lifestyles post-pandemic, both...
