Report description:

Depilatories experienced a slowdown in total volume sales growth in 2023. This was mainly because rising prices and falling purchasing power prompted more Algerian women to try to save money by reverting to traditional home-made hair removal solutions such as sugaring and cire orientale ("Oriental wax"), which is prepared with sugar, honey and lemon. Nonetheless, a variety of factors ensured demand remained fairly resilient on the whole. Most notably, the category continued to profit from the in...
