Report description:

After a year of slight decline in 2022, depilatories showed current value growth in China in 2023, and rebounded to the 2021 level of sales, mainly due to the easing of pandemic restrictions and increasing consumer awareness. The relaxation of pandemic restrictions allowed for more social activities and interactions. This led to an increased focus on personal appearance and grooming amongst Chinese consumers, including a growing interest in body beauty and hair removal. The resurgence of tourism...
