Report description:

Depilatories registered current value growth in the Czech Republic in 2023. High inflation and the rising prices of services in beauty salons, as well as laser hair removal, temporarily supported the growing retail value of the category. Sales volumes of depilatories are being threatened by long-term competition from permanent or semi-salon, salon, and home hair removal. Towards the end of the review period, the rising cost of living prevented some consumers from going to salons or purchasing ho...
