Report description:

Mass beauty and personal care in Bulgaria registered a positive performance in 2023. Whilst price increases fuelled some of this growth, the increased demand for more affordable products was also a factor as inflation remained stubbornly high. This development has positively impacted the performance of mass brands in several categories, as well as private label. Mass colour cosmetics is one of the best-performing categories, with growth being driven by the increasing interest of Gen Z in make-up...
