Report description:

Men's grooming in Bolivia registered a fall in volume sales in 2023, though both current and constant value sales increased. With prices continuing to rise, especially for imported brands, due to sharp decline in foreign cash reserves, this dampened volume sales. As such, consumers prioritised essentials and also increasingly bought smuggled imported brands, which are widely available through traditional channels such as outdoor markets. Deodorants and shaving products were most impacted by this...
