Report description:

In 2023, the economic situation limited growth for men's grooming in Ireland. Irish consumers suffered from high inflation and declining GDP growth, eroding their purchase power. Consequently, many consumers moved away from purchasing male-specific items, turning to gender-neutral or family products to save money. This impacted the overall retail volume growth of the landscape in 2023; this eroded the category's performance in 2023, with product areas such as men's toiletries, men's pre-shave an...
