Report description:

Sales in premium beauty and personal care in Spain were somewhat hampered by the economic environment in 2023. Inflationary pressures have led to high unit prices against a backdrop of lower consumer spending power, in turn resulting in consumers minimising their non-essential expenditure and trading down to cheaper products. Here we can note a switch from premium to mass options, along with a switch from brands to private label. However, we also note that some categories are affected more than...
