Report description:

In 2023, beauty and personal care in Bosnia and Herzegovina achieved strong current value growth primarily as a result of rising unit prices. Inflation remained high even though it had slowed relative to 2022. Consumer demand was relatively unchanged resulting in stagnant volume sales in 2023, although skin care, hair care and colour cosmetics benefitted from stronger demand with volume growth rising slightly. On the whole, unit price increases were significant in beauty and personal care, which...
