Report description:

Deodorant sprays remained the overwhelmingly dominant category of deodorants in Croatia during 2023 and this is a reflection of the status that deodorant spray shave as the default format of deodorants for local consumers. Put simply, deodorant sprays are seen as the most convenient and effective option by the vast majority of consumers, while strong competition among the category's leading brands ensures that unit price growth has been kept in check, even as high inflation has led to significan...
