Report description:

Dog food in the Czech Republic is still affected by tough economic conditions, which started in 2022 with the war in Ukraine and were followed by the effects of high inflation and cost-of-living on businesses and consumers. The economic situation in the country stabilised during 2024, with the inflation rate coming under control. While overall retail volume sales of dog food are expected to continue to see a slight, but slower, drop in 2024, there are pockets of growth, such as economy dry dog f...
