Report description:

Demand for dog food in the United Arab Emirates continues to rise, supported by a growing dog population and ownership rate. As an increasing number of consumers in the United Arab Emirates are becoming accustomed to the idea of having dogs as pets in their homes, demand for dog food, both wet and dry formats, in addition to dog treats and mixers, is growing. Economic growth and an increase in disposable incomes within the United Arab Emirates allow pet owners to spend more on mid-priced and pre...
