Report description:

Mass beauty and personal care still accounted for significantly more value sales than premium in Azerbaijan in 2023. However, its current value growth was lower. That being said, there was growth. Mass beauty and personal products are continually innovating and are quick to pick up on trends and messaging that often first appears within premium products. As such, though value for money was the most important driver when buying many products, high quality was also a requisite.
