Report description:

In 2023 skin care in Thailand remained focused on the skinimalism trend, whereby the aim is to use relatively few steps in short but efficient skin care routines. The most important steps for Thai consumers are those centred on cleansing, moisturising/nourishing, and protection. In using few products consumers prioritise multifunctional variants containing ingredients proven to be efficacious. Another major skin care trend in 2023 was love yourself the way you are, as demand rose for products de...
