Report description:

2023 saw significant growth in sales of baby wipes offered under brands imported from China. The appearance of these Chinese brands, which represent the ideal combination of high quality and low price, has played a key role in reenergising the category, boosting demand in the midst of a challenging trading scenario due the complicated economic situation in Ecuador. The advent of these Chinese brands has meant greater variety for Ecuadorian consumers and, crucially, a decline in the average unit...
