Report description:

Baby and child-specific products in Georgia registered healthy volume growth in 2023, as well as positive constant value growth. Baby wipes continues to account for most value sales and also registered the highest value growth. Another strong performer was sun care, though from a very low base. Georgians tend to spend a significant amount of time outdoors, particularly near the sea. Moreover, there is a growing awareness about the dangers of overexposure to the sun. As a result, sun protection c...
