Report description:

2023 was a slightly better year for the bath and shower category in Latvia. In the aftermath of the COVID-19 pandemic, demand for soap has remained robust with many consumers continuing the habit of frequent hand washing. That being said, the ongoing decline in volume sales is due to the normalisation of demand patterns as fears about the pandemic further abated. Indeed, overall bath and shower volume sales remained well above pre-pandemic levels in 2023. Price inflation added further momentum t...
