Report description:

Bath and shower in Slovenia witnessed a slight return to volume growth in 2023, despite the weaker economic conditions. In 2023, household budgets came under further pressure due to persistently high inflation, with many consumers choosing to economise. Private label products have become even more attractive to price sensitive consumers, with value share rising further in 2023. Another key trend was the increasing preference for bath and shower products in larger pack sizes. In particular, very...
