Report description:

The increasing preference for cat ownership over dogs is reshaping the dynamics of pet food, particularly for cat food in Thailand. As cats require less food and medication compared to dogs, the demand for cat food is rising steadily as the cat population grows. In addition, the adaptability of cats to smaller living spaces such as condominiums positions them as a more practical choice for urban dwellers, further bolstering the demand for cat food among this demographic. As societal attitudes ev...
