Report description:

Colour cosmetics in Slovenia was relatively unaffected by the high rate of inflation and unit price growth in 2023, as in the previous year. Consumers turned to luxury items to help them feel better in their skin, including make-up products. Despite the unstable economic situation in Slovenia, women were not yet willing to cut out products that lift up their spirits and enhance their appearance. On the contrary, consumers are keen to invest in new products and expand their repertoire of colour c...
