Report description:

Depilatories remained an insignificant category in Indonesia at the end of the review period. Despite the fact that the removal of unwanted facial and body hair is standard for women in the country, consumers prefer to seek out professional treatments, rather than resorting to at-home methods, which are perceived to be less effective and potentially even harmful to the skin. Beauty clinics offering laser hair removal, for example, are gradually mushrooming in the country, in line with the growin...
