Report description:

Depilatories remained a highly consolidated category in Malaysia in 2023. Reckitt Benckiser continued to dominate hair removers/bleaches with its brand Veet, with the brand still gaining value share, while Procter & Gamble maintained its dominant lead in women's razors and blades with its Gillette brand, which is synonymous with this type of product in the country. Procter & Gamble remains highly active in its advertising and promotional efforts to support new product developments.

Euromonitor International's Depilatories in Malaysia report offers a comprehensive guide to the size and shape of the market at a national level.
