Report description:

Dog food in Ireland is expected to continue to face challenges over 2024, marked by slow retail volume growth. This is attributed to dog population constraints in conjunction with inflationary pressures. The Dublin Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals (DSPCA)'s report of a surge in animals being given up compelled a public appeal to relieve the strain on their services. Inflation emerged as a driving force in the second half of the review period, forcing dog owners to surrender their...
