Report description:

Dog food in Romania is expected to see a return to positive volume growth in 2024, following the decline of the previous year. This will be due in a large part to waning inflationary pressures, which will make commercially-prepared products more affordable to lower-income owners affected by the high cost of living. This will be especially the case for dogs kept outside as guard dogs in the countryside and small cities, and which are typically left alone for long periods of time during the day. T...
