Report description:

The premium segment continued to outperform its mass counterpart in volume and current value growth terms in fragrances in Costa Rica in 2023. While this was mainly because sales in the former were increasing from a much lower base, premium brands were also the chief beneficiaries of improvements in confidence and purchasing power among consumers brought about by a dramatic reduction in inflationary pressures. In addition, with life largely returning to normal in the wake of COVID-19, many peopl...
