Report description:

The Malaysian hair care market continued to benefit from the post-pandemic return to previous patterns and habits in 2023. The COVID-19 pandemic and the resulting lockdowns and home seclusion promoted a change in the hair care routines of many consumers. Unable or unwilling to visit hair salons there was a surge in use of products such as colourants and conditioners and treatments during 2021 with this pattern continuing into 2022 and 2023. While some consumers returned to hair salons during 202...
