Report description:

Limited-service restaurants continued to recover from the COVID-19 pandemic in 2023, although value growth was much slower than recent years. This is mainly due to the twin issues of higher food prices and more conservative spending patterns, as inflationary conditions prevailed in Belgium. However, consumers opted for limited-service restaurants over full-service restaurants, with the support of innovation and a wider offer. While pizza and burgers are the most popular categories in foodservice...
