Report description:

Mass beauty and personal care saw double-digit current value growth in Egypt in 2023 driven by the hard economic situation and the high rate of inflation, which reached more than 35%. The marked rise in prices, and lack of governmental control over prices, adversely affected consumer purchasing power. As a result, consumers focused their spending power on essential items and looked to trade down to less expensive options in many categories. This served to boost the performance of the mass beauty...
