Report description:

Despite enormous economic changes, pet care in Egypt had a successful year in 2023/24, with robust volume growth and even stronger growth in current value terms. Limitations in imports due to foreign currency deficiency and inflation make it more difficult for local consumers to adopt regular purchasing habits; however, the rise of domestic production and the inclination towards fresh food and other alternatives such as packaged meals means the category is continuing to evolve.

Euromonitor International's Pet Care in Egypt report offers a comprehensive guide to the size and shape of the market at a national level.
