Report description:

Pet care continues to grow in both value and volume terms in Greece in 2024, having recorded steady growth over the review period. Pet care witnessed stronger growth in current value terms in 2023 than volume terms with this resulting from the impact of elevated inflation and constant price adjustments, but despite these challenges demand remained stable. Pet owners continue to show a willingness to take care of their pets but there has been a change in their behaviour. Many pet owners have beco...
