Report description:

Finland has relatively strict animal welfare regulations compared to many other markets and these have been further enhanced. Starting from 1 January 2024, the rules for keeping an animal at home have become even stricter as authorities seek to ensure a high standard of care for domestic animals. The Animal Welfare Act 693/2023 ?21 states that all animals in permanent holding places must have access to a water supply at all times - this applies to all mammals and birds. This means that dogs kept...
