Report description:

Pet Care in Romania is expected to see a return to positive volume growth in 2024, following the decline of the previous year. This will be due in a large part to waning inflationary pressures, which will have a positive impact on real household incomes. This will, in turn, make pet care products more affordable to owners affected by the high cost of living. Indeed, lower year-on-year price increases for pet food will result in a greater propensity amongst dog and cat owners to switch from unpre...
