Report description:

In 2024, pet ownership of cats and dogs remains popular in Sweden, while other pet ownership is in decline. However, the rising number of pets purchased during COVID-19 has led to increased pet abandonment reports, consequently slowing pet food sales. The return to pre-pandemic lifestyle has partnered with rising inflation and political instability, impacting these pet ownership figures. In addition, price hikes have continued to challenge sales. Consequently, some owners opt for home-made food...
