Report description:

Pet care is set to see continued growth in Ukraine in 2024. Having seen volumes fall following the Russian invasion of the country in 2022, the market returned to growth in the following year. The positive sales performance in wartime is related to the relatively low penetration of pet food in Ukraine, with many people feeding pets with non-prepared food, including table scraps and leftovers. While all price segments of dog and cat food look set to put in positive performances in 2024, mid-price...
