Report description:

Pet products saw healthy current value growth in Singapore in 2023, and this is set to be maintained in 2024, with growth across all categories. Pet healthcare is expected to continue to record stable current value growth in 2024, which is partially attributed to new product developments and new brand entrants in pet dietary supplements. Owners are extending their understanding of human nutrition to their pets, often viewing them as child substitutes. Consequently, there is a propensity for owne...
