Report description:

In 2023, in addition to driving up the prices of pet food, inflation also drove up prices for pet products in the Philippines, due to rising manufacturing and distribution costs. This put a strain on pet owners' budgets. Therefore, although retail current value growth continued for pet products in the Philippines in 2023, and this trend is set to continue in 2024, rates of increase are lower than the growth rates seen in prior years. Consumers have had to spend more when purchasing essential ite...
