Report description:

Turkey's pet products market is benefitting from the pet humanisation trend in 2024, as seen in other pet care categories. Humanisation is particularly pronounced among dog owners, who are thus more likely than other pet owners to buy non-essential accessories that can improve the health, emotional wellbeing and appearance of their animal companions. One of the most notable examples of this trend is rising interest in dog clothes, and the growing availability of various brands and product types...
