Report description:

Following extremely strong growth during the COVID-19 pandemic, skin care continued to see a normalisation in sales in 2023. Retail volume and current value sales both declined as consumption levels began to subside to more normal levels. Indeed, overall skin care sales remained well above pre-pandemic levels in 2023 with manufacturers continuing to reap the benefits of the strong recovery. The return to going out of the home and wearing colour cosmetics underpinned demand for skin care as Danes...
