Report description:

Cat food in Bulgaria is expected to continue increasing in both volume and value sales in 2024. This is partly due to growth in Bulgaria's pet cat population, though the primary drivers of volume sales remain pet humanisation, rising awareness of the nutritional and health benefits of prepared food products and increasing appreciation of the greater convenience they provide compared to home-made alternatives. Even among the many people who regularly feed stray cats in their localities, there is...
