Report description:

Ecuador has been through a series of economic crises in recent years and, according to Instituto Nacional de Estadísticas y Censos (INEC), more than 60.5% of Ecuadorians are currently underemployed or struggling to make ends meet despite working full-time. While the country's official unemployment rate is relatively low at just 5.2%, the significant numbers of underemployed and underpaid people living in the country remains a major problem. The significant proportion of the country's population...
