Report description:

The performance of pet care in Slovakia is being hampered by unit price growth and marginal fluctuations in pet populations during 2024, with retail volume sales rising only slightly. In current value terms, pet care posted healthy growth thanks to price inflation and the ongoing premiumisation trend. Consumer purchasing power is still restrained in 2024, and the steep price increases have forced a growing number of pet owners to seek out cheaper alternatives. Treats were particularly impacted b...
