Report description:

Pet care in Turkey in 2024 is seeing local consumers showing an increasingly cautious attitude towards consumption. The economic uncertainty the country throughout the review period has resulted in a widespread conservative and reluctant approach in terms of spending, including on pet care, and volume sales have slowed consistently since 2021 in a pattern that is persisting in 2024. Pet owners making more calculated choices when it comes to deciding the most important products for their pets, wi...
