Report description:

In 2023, baby and child-specific products maintained dynamic current value growth in Poland. This growth was purely due to price rises, as volume sales were unable to return to growth. However, different performances were seen across categories. For instance, whilst baby wipes saw below-average growth, a significant surge in sales was witnessed by baby and child-specific sun care, in both retail volume and current value terms, surpassing the levels of sales seen before the pandemic, in 2019.
