Report description:

Maintaining the trend seen in the previous two years, baby and child-specific products maintained solid retail volume growth in Romania in 2023, along with double-digit current value growth as prices rose. This category remains a priority for companies, given the increased attention paid by many parents to the quality and safety of products intended for use on their children. They are becoming more willing to spend significant amounts on their children, and premium baby and child-specific produc...
