Report description:

In 2023, deodorants experienced further solid growth in both retail volume and current value terms in Poland, despite already having returned to the pre-pandemic level of sales. All categories saw both volume and value growth except for deodorant wipes, which maintained its declining trend in volume terms. Growth was largely attributed to the full return of social, professional, and sports activities. With rising prices also playing a role in value growth, the pace of growth accelerated. Global...
