Report description:

Depilatories in Nigeria still had quite low penetration at the end of the review period. Nonetheless, the category saw some development. Demand has largely been sustained over the review period, although there was some fluctuation due to the effects of the Coronavirus (COVID-19) pandemic and high inflationary pressure on prices, purchasing power and the cost-of-living. Towards the end of the review period the demand for depilatories in Nigeria was driven by growing job opportunities and incomes...
