Report description:

As already evident the previous year, even in times of restricted disposable incomes, consumers continued to purchase premium products in the UK over 2023. However, they remained discerning in terms of the specific products they used and the brands they invested in. As the UK's pace of inflation slowed in 2023, this balancing act was made easier with social media becoming increasingly influential again, promoting more spontaneous purchases. This trend was felt most in colour cosmetics, skin care...
