Report description:

Home furnishings in Canada faced challenges in 2023, witnessing declines in both current and constant value terms. This contraction was driven by several factors, including persistent inflation and a slowdown in new constructions impacting furniture demand. The surge in home furnishings during the COVID-19 pandemic led to reduced need for furniture renewal in 2023, particularly for larger, costlier items like beds and dining furniture. Conversely, smaller items such as LED light sources and othe...
