Report description:

Overall demand for depilatories in the United Arab Emirates remained positive in 2023, although volume growth continued to notably slow, while value growth rose further due to price increases. The category is dominated by hair removers/bleaches in the local market. One notable innovation in depilatories has been the introduction of hair removal creams tailored for sensitive skin. These products aim to alleviate the common issue of skin irritation post-depilatory use. Formulated with soothing ing...
